Kelly, Doyle, Capt. Fletcher And Frisch Cover Infield

Chances Are That Same Line-Up Will Face Braves When the Season Opens; Game Goes Entire Nine Innings Before a Good-Sized Crowd

By W. O. McGeehan

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 12.—In the first inning practice game played by the Giants since their arrival here, the hardshell Armadillos defeated the Enchillados at League Park, this afternoon before quite a few inhabitants of this Texan town. When the official scorer was located after the pastime it was learned that the Armadillos had achieved their second victory by the margin of 6 runs to 2.

Playing against the rookies was the same team which will in all probability start the 1920 season against the Braves at the Polo Grounds next month. Arthur Fletcher was at short at the start of the proceedings, and "Laughing" Larry Doyle was stationed at second base. George Kelly was on first and Frank Frisch on third.

George Burns, the outfielder, will no doubt again be McGraw's lead-off man. He batted first to-day and was followed by Ross Young. Frisch was third, then came Fletcher in the clean-up position. Doyle was fifth, Kauff sixth, Kelly seventh and Snyder eighth. With this line-up McGraw hopes to win the 1920 National League championship emblem.

Virgil Barnes Pounded.

The Armadillos won the game in the very first inning at the expense of Virgil Barnes, a younger brother of Joe Barnes. With two outs in the opening round, the regulars staged a batting rally which netted them four runs. The fireworks were touched off by Frank Frisch, the Fordham lad, who had a rather eventful afternoon.

Frisch rammed a long drive to right and perched himself on second. Fletcher made his first time at bat for the year of 1920, notably by crashing a double into right. Frisch rambling over the plate. Doyle followed with a three-bagger to the same spot and Fletcher scored.

Kauff kept up the heavy bombardment by also hitting for three bases. The elongated Kelly smashed a hit over second and Kauff counted. Kelly, however, essayed to steal second and was caught by Smith on a throw to Cooney, who put the ball on the big first baseman as he came into the bag.

The next run made by the Armadillos was manufactured by Frisch. The third baseman lifted the ball over the right field fence in the third inning. It was the first time that the feat has been accomplished by any of the New York players.

The regulars' sixth and final run was corked while Shufflin' Phil Douglas was pitching for the rookies.

Fletcher Gets Around

In the fifth inning Fletcher singled and went to second on Doyle's infield out. Smith, at short, threw the ball over second and threw wild. Fletcher going to third. Smith next tried to pick the captain off third. The catcher's throw was high and wide, but Eddie Sicking dropped the ball and Fletcher reached home.

As the result of the struggle Frisch was nursing a cut jaw to-night. In the first inning, Arnold Stantz, the little outfielder from Holy Cross, cracked a three-bagger to right. He took a big lead off third and Snyder shot the ball down to Frisch.

The play was close and in sliding back to the bag Stantz kicked his feet up in the air. His left shoe struck Frisch in the face and sent him reeling backward.

The "Fordham Pride" however, continued in the game and later knocked the ball over the fence. It was the first hit among the Giant players this year.

The Giants will play their second exhibition game with the San Antonio Bronchos to-morrow afternoon. McGraw will start the game with his regular team, Hubbell, Ryan and R. Kelly are scheduled to do the pitching for the big leaguers.

The line-up follows:

Regulars—Burns, I. J. Young, R. F. Frisch, 2b; Fletcher, C. A. Doyle, 1b; Bates, 2b; Kauff, C. F. Kelly, 1b; Snyder, C. Winters, p.; Burfield, p. Rookies—Barnes, I. J. Stantz, C. F. Kin-sella, R. F. King, 1b; Cooney, 2b; Sicking, 2b; McGraw, R. A. Smith, C. V. Barnes, p.; Stryker, p.

Probably the most important conference yet held by the American Olympic committee is scheduled at the New York Athletic Club this afternoon. Practically every organization which will be represented on the United States team will have delegates present. It is likely that the members of the track and field committee will decide on the date and place for the sectional try-outs.

The business to be transacted covers the following: Introduction of governing resolutions, dates and places for trials and try-outs, preliminary and final in all sports in which the United States will be represented at Antwerp, Belgium; arrangements for collection of funds by private and public subscription, discussion on coaching, plans for transportation of team and housing of athletes, segregation and instruction of various committees, reports of committees and athletic conditions in all sections of the United States, reports of foreign national Olympic games activities and participation of army and navy athletes.

John A. Davis, director of physical education and coach of the basketball, tennis and track teams of Stevens Tech, will call this morning for Rutgers where he has been requested by the government to take charge of physical education of that country.

With the help of six assistants, who will be assigned to different sections of the country, he plans to establish physical education departments in all of the existing schools and to build new schools where necessary. He will be abroad about a year. For several years he will be in Belgium as physical adviser of the Belgian and Polish entries in the Olympic games.

Not forgotten. He hit the ball wickedly into all fields. His first drive was over the bullpen but Bodie was playing as deep as he would for Ruth and nabbed it. This clout would have carried into the left-field bleachers at the Polo Grounds. Meusel got two safe hits on.

Shawkey and Thormahlen pitched fine ball for the youngsters, but were never forced to extend themselves. Ernie Shonk was hammered hard in the fourth. O'Doul, Ward, Meusel and Geiser delivered four clean hits off Jack Uinn before any one was retired.

Against Brooklyn to-morrow Huggins will use the batting order of the regulars as they lined up to-day except for the battery positions. Ruel will catch. Collins, Maye and Mogridge probably will share the pitching work. Brooklyn's line-up is announced as follows: Olson, 2b; Johnston, 3b; Myers, cf; Wheat, 1b; Konechey, 1b; Ward, ss; Reis, rf; Elliott and Miller, c; Mohart, Cadore and Marquardt, p.

Hank O'Day has been here for the past several days. Bill Dineen was expected on a night train, which was reported several hours late. Dineen and O'Day will officiate in all the New York-Brooklyn battles.

The best Ruth got in the hitting line was a sacrifice fly. As a consequence his average has dwindled to a meager .100. A consignment of Ruth special bats arrived last night from Louisville, but Babe immediately spotted them as of the 1916 model. When he popped out in the ninth inning he threw one of the cudgels over the fence.
